By the court

Hon'ble A.A. Desai, C.J.

The applicant is charged for the offence punishable under section 147, 148, 149 and 302 I.P.C. The prosecution is based on the circumstantial evidence.

Sri Rajendra Singh, learned counsel for the applicant urged that there is delay in recording the statement under section 161,Cr.P.C. His name was not initially shown in the complaint. Other four accused persons have already been released on bail. In view of this, he urged that the applicant should be released on bail.

Heard Sri R.S.Sambhal, learned Addl. Government Advocate as well.

I direct that the applicant Sher Ali be released on bail on his furnishing a personal bond in the sum of Rs. 50,000/-(Rupees Fifty Thousand only) with two sureties each in the like amount to the satisfaction of the A.C.J.M. Roorkee.

The applicant shall report to the concerned police station every day till further orders. He shall also not try to termper with the witnesses.
